NEW PROSECUTOR WILL BE CHOSEN

GOVERNMENT WILL PROCEED IN SAN FRANCISCO WHITE SLAVE CASES

WASHINGTON IS RELIEVED

Question One of Most Interesting With Which President Has Had to Deal

By Associated Press.

Washington, June 25.—President Wilson and Attorney General McReynolds had an early conference today to select a prosecutor for the Caminetti-Diggs white slave cases and the Western Fuel indictments in the San Francisco federal court.

With the wheels of the department of justice grinding again in that celebrated case, officials made no effort to conceal their relief. Official Washington reflected that feeling. Probably no issue with which President Wilson has had to deal since his inauguration has attracted such widespread attention.

Late yesterday some of the correspondence in the case was made public.

Correspondence Made Public.

First the president telegraphed Mr McNab as follows:

"Washington, D. C., June 24.—John L. McNab, Esq., San Francisco, Cal. —I greatly regret that you should have acted so hastily and under so complete misapprehension of the actual circumstances, but since you have chosen such a course and have given your resignation the form of an inexcusable intimation of injustice and wrong-doing on the part of your superior, I release you without hesitation and accept your resignation, to take effect at once.

"WOODROW WILSON."

Attorney General McReynolds' statement that he ordered a postponement of the cases as an ordinary procedure in criminal trials, without anticipating that "any fair minded man" would attribute "a malign motive" to him was acknowledged by the president in his letter:

"Washington, June 24.—My Dear Mr. Attorney General—Allow me to acknowledge with sincere appreciation your letter of today, giving me a full account of the why in which the Department of Justice has dealt with the Diggs-Caminetti and the Western Fuel Company cases, pending in California, and transmitting the documents connected with the two cases necessary for their elucidation.

"I am entirely satisfied that the course you took in both the cases was prompted by sound and impartial judgment and a clear insistence for what was fair and right.

"I approve your course very heartily and without hesitation. But I agree with you that what we may think of what has been done does not relieve us of the obligation to press these cases with the utmost diligence and energy.

"I approve very heartily of your suggestion that in the circumstances special counsel be employed, the best that we can obtain.

"I will be very glad to confer with you about the selection. I hope that you will do this without delay. I am very glad, indeed, that you are giving your personal attention to the immediate and diligent prosecution of the cases, which I agree with you in regarding as of serious importance from every point of view. Sincerely yours,

"WOODROW WILSON."

McReynolds Submits History.

Besides the attorney general's letter to the president, the White House gave out a letter written to Mr. McReynolds by Secretary Wilson of the Department of Labor, in which the latter declared that Anthony Caminetti asked for leave of absence to attend the trial of his son before he took the oath of office as Commissioner General of Immigration. Furthermore, Secretary Wilson stated that neither Mr. Caminetti nor any one else suggested that he ask for the postponement of the cases, but that he did it of his own volition so as to keep Mr. Caminetti in Washington for the work of organizing the Immigration Bureau.

In a letter to the president, Attorney General McReynolds recited the history of the two cases and submitted the files in each case.

Responding to instructions from the attorney general for a detailed report of the Diggs and Caminetti cases and to take no affirmative action until further advised by the Department of Justice, the attorney general said United States Attorney McNab sent a report, received on May 27. In this report, he added, McNab "details a version of the acts with his inferences therefrom and expresses the opinion that the case was aggravated and should be vigorously prosecuted; also that there might be attempts to interfere with the due course of justice by improper influences."

On the day the report was received the attorney general telegraphed McNab as follows:

"I think the proper course to follow is for you to set the cases and proceed with them as planned and you are so directed."

The question that is agitating the people of today is, "Why Men Leave Home." Come to the Lamar Airdome tonight. 37 1tc

PROBES AFFAIRS OF SECURITY OIL

STATE ATTEMPTS TO SHOW ITS CONNECTION WITH THE STANDARD

SECRETARY IS WITNESS

Courtenay Marshall Still on Stand Today—Hearing Adjourns to Galveston

By Associated Press.

Beaumont, Texas, June 25.—Investigation of the Security Oil Company was again taken up by the State this morning when the hearing in the $59,000,000 oil case was resumed.

The Security Oil Company was the property bought by John Sealy and Company 1909 together with the Navarro Refining Company which later became the Magnolia Petroleum Company. Courtney Marshall, secretary of the Magnolia, who also was secretary of the Security Company resumed teh stand today. The State had shown yesterday the ownership of all but three of the $15,000 shares of the Security Oil Company by the London Commercial Trading & Investment Company which the State contends is the English branch of the Standard Oil. The fact that the Security company rendered monthly trial balances to the London firm was established and these balances down to 1909 were introduced in evidence.

Rendered Weekly Reports.

The State introduced documents to show that since December, 1909, weekly reports of the company's condition were sent to Howard Baine and S. G. Baine, continuing, the State charges, its relations with the Standard Oil Company after it had been adjudged a trust and sold by the State. After September 16, 1911, these regular reports were sent to H. C. Folger Jr, 26 Broadway, New York City. It was in September, 1911 that the Magnolia was organized from the property bought by John Sealy and Company.

The stock book of the Magnolia was put into the record to show that John D. Archbold and H. C. Folger Jr., own about ninety per cent of the Magnolia's stock. The only additional fact brought out by the defense was that reports such as were furnished Mr. Baine and Mr. Folger also went to several other persons and officers of the Magnolia Petroleum Co.

Adjourns To Galveston.

Questions about the purchase of tank cars and other supplies by the Magnolia and its precedessors did not develop much. The State tried to show that the Magnolia bought its supplies from Standard Oil sources

The hearing will adjourn this afternoon to Galveston tomorrow where John Sealy and R. Waverly Smith, treasurer of the Magnolia will be the principal witnesses.

Courtenay Marshall, the secretary of Magnolia, ise an interesting Irishman, who has beautified the grounds around the Magnolia refinery offices with Irish roses and other flowers. He, like Mr. Maury of State's counsel, is quick at repartee, and, like most Irishmen, he has the knack of answering one

PRESIDENT WILSON TOO BUSY TO TAKE VACATION.

Washington, June 25.—President Wilson intends to take no vacation while Congress is in session and is determined to share any discomfort the hot season may bring. While he will leave Friday to take his family to Cornish, N. H., he will return the following Monday, unless Congress recesses over July 4. The ice refrigerating plant underneath Mr. Wilson's office is no longer in operation and the temperature of the president's workroom does not differ from that in any other part of Washington. Mr. Wilson says he is prepared to stand the heat and looks forward to a long session with currency legislation as the ultimate object.

PURE GRIT ENABLED ARCHDEACON STUCK TO REACH TOP OF NORTH AMERICAN CONTINENT

New York, June 25.—"Leading an expedition to the top of Mount McKinley, the highest mountain in North America, is not the first unusual thing the Rev. Hudson Stuck, archdeacon of Alaska, has done," said Eugene M. Camp of New York, a personal friend of the missionary of some years' standing. "He has the fighting spirit, and I believe pure grit enabled him to win. Mr. Stuck, an Englishman by birth, came to America as a young fellow and went to the University of the South. He became an Episcopal clergyman in 1892, serving under Bishop Johnston in Western Texas. Two years were enough for him to be discovered in that distant field, and in 1894 he became dean of St. Matthew's cathedral at Dallas under Bishop Garrett. After a service there of ten years he went in 1904 to Alaska where he has been since. Dallas sent him in 1901 to San Francisco, a deputy to the Episcopal general convention. Young and unknown, he won his spurs in that eventful convention. The late Rev. Dr. William R. Huntington of New York, one of the most brilliant debaters any church in America has ever produced, then at his height, led a five day debate. Young Stuck successfully met him and over and over again carried the whole convention with him against the famous New York debater. People began to ask who the Texan might be. They found out before the convention was over. Even Dr. Huntington paid him the highest compliment as a fighter in the forum. Three years later Mr. Stuck astonished his friends by giving up his position at Dallas and going to Alaska. The bishop of Alaska, the Right Rev. Dr. Peter T. Rowe, is one of the best known bishops in the Episcopal church, brought into prominence at first by the late J. Pierpont Morgan of New York, who financially helped him. Becoming his archdeacon, Mr. Stuck did the difficult thing of remaining perfectly loyal to Bishop Rowe, not taking a single laurel from him, and yet himself attaining a world-wide fame as a daring missionary. From distant Alaska, without once leaving it, but for eight years sticking to his job, he wrote descriptive articles about the Episcopal church in Alaska. These were published in the missionary magazine of his church. The outcome is that Archdeacon Stuck is one of the best known leaders. When he comes to New York in October next, to attend the general convention, the same body he attended in San Francisco in 1901, hardly another man will be more sought after as a speaker. And he did it all while himself remaining in Alaska snows and wilds. Nobody wonders he got to the top of Mount McKinley—having made up his mind to start." The message said that the reached the summit of the mountain on June 7. He set out three months ago on the trip. The dispatch says that the scaling party was able to discern a flagpole that the Thomas Lloyd expedition in 1910 put up on one of the lower peaks. The explorer believes that the accuracy of his instruments, coupled with the splendid weather conditions, prevailing, will give an unusually correct calculation as to the exact height of the mountain when his observations have been figured out. Archdeacon Stuck and his companions—H. P. Karstens, R. G. Tatum and Walter Harper—Knelt in prayer and recited the thanksgiving service of the church and later put up a six foot cross on the summit. The archdeacon and his three followers left Fairbanks the middle of March. Their equipment was supplied from the outfit of Professor Parker, which was used last year. Supplies had been taken to the foot of the mountain last fall.

ORDINARY BETTING NOT GAMBLING, SAYS JUDGE

Releases Men Arrested at Race Track Because No Bookmaker was in Evidence.

New York, June 25.—Horse racing, as recently revived at Belmont Park, is free from betting in the eyes of the law, according to a decision of Judge James P. Niemann, sitting as a committing magistrate here. He threw out of court today the proceedings brought by the district attorney of Nassau county, based on the allegations by private detectives that they had placed bets with bookmakers.

The court held that it was not shown that the men with whom bets were placed were bookmakers within the meaning of the law. It was plain, he said, that there was gambling. But, he added, ordinary betting if carried on from day to day is not bookmaking. It would have to be shown that men with whom bets were made were common gamblers, and designation of the defendants as such by the detectives is a mere conclusion.

TWENTY-SIX MAY HAVE MET DEATH

THAT MANY BELIEVED TO BE KILLED IN EXPLOSION AT BUFALO

ELEVEN KNOWN VICTIMS

Several Other Bodies Believed to be in Ruins—Property Loss is $250,000

By Associated Press.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 25.—Official checking of the list of employes of the Hucated Milling Company, whose elevator was blown up by a dust explosion yesterday shows that besides the eleven known victims, twenty-six men are still unaccounted for and are believed to be in the ruins. Two bodies can be seen by firemen in the milling company's tower.

It is believed some of the men took refuge in this tower after the explosion and were trapped there.

Sixty were taken to hospitals, some in a serious condition, from burns and broken legs and arms. That many of the injured can not survive and that the ultimate death list may number fifteen is an estimate reached by a canvass of the hospitals.

The explosion was caused by the puffing of dust accumulations in the feed house and was of frightful force tearing out one wall of the wooden structure and breaking windows for a quarter of a mile around.

John Conroy, engineer of a switch engine, was blown from his cab.

Body Blown Fifty Feet.

The body of Henry Vetter was blown fifty feet and was found under a box car near by badly burned.

A boy, while running to the fire, was run down by an automobile and killed.

The elevator concern employed 150 men and, according to Vice President Huested of the company, four are not accounted for. Employes who escaped declare, however, that many of their fellow-workmen were cut off by the flames and perished.

A dozen box cars loaded with grain were destroyed. The elevator had a capacity of 500,000 bushels. Half the building was of old wooden construction and with its contents was destroyed.

Officials of the company estimated their loss at $250,000, covered by insurance.

Martin Dies Blacks Eye of Street Car Employe Following Trouble Over Window

By Associated Press.

The conductor came out of the fracas with a black eye, the car came out with a smashed window and Mr. Dies came out unscratched, but with a ruffled temper Railway company officials said today they were inclined to support the conductor. It is said Mr. Dies found it difficult to open and window and punched the pane out with one swipe of his elbow. When the conductor remonstrated the congressman virtually repeated the movement, but on the conductors' eye with his first.

APPOINTMENT OF NEW SERVIAN CABINET LIKELY.

Belgrade, June 25.—King Peter has intrusted M. Pasitch, the Premier who recently resigned, with the reconstruction of the Cabinet. Only the holders of the portfolios of war and justice will be changed in the new combination.

This victory of Premier Pasitch is taken in influential circles here to mean that Servia is ready to accept arbitration in the Balkan dispute in spite of the activities of her army, and that war will thus be averted.

ALLEGED JOKER IN AMENDMENTS

EFFORT TO STOP IMPORTS OF CHILD-LABOR GOODS IS OPPOSED

WOULD MEAN PROTECTION

Plant to Give Appeals Court Jurisdiction Into Customs Cases Also Meets Objection

By Associated Press.

Washington, June 25.—Two far-reaching amendments to the administrative provision of the tariff bill aroused opposition in the democratic Senate caucus today.

One was that prohibiting importation of any goods except immediate products of agriculture, forest or fisheries, wholly or in part manufactured by children under fourteen years old. That provision was described by many senators to be the most drastic protective measure any manufacturer could ask for, greater as a protection against foreign competition than high tariff rates.

The amendment to grant the United States court of appeals concurrent jurisdiction in customs cases involving more than $100, with the customs court, also aroused opposition. Some democrats thought the proposal an entering wedge toward elimination of the customs court.

Under the proposed new form of the income tax an additional exemption of $1,000 would be allowed to married men or married women with dependent wives or husbands, not taxable under this law, and $500 would be added for each dependent child living with and dependent upon the taxable parent. In case of both parties being taxable, however, no exemption for children would apply.

Other important changes in the plan include the exemption from taxation of that portion of the premiums collected by the mutual life or mutual marine insurance companies which may be returned to policy holders in the form of dividends. The taxation of this portion of their income had been bitterly opposed by the insurance companies The Underwood bill has exempted only mutual fire insurance companies on this basis.

Chambers of commerce, civic bodies and cities, counties and states are added to the class of organizations whose incomes will not be taxable.

To secure the payment of a tax "upon coupons, checks or bills of exchange," collected from foreign residents, a provision was added requiring all firms collecting such funds to secure a license from the commissioner of internal revenue so the amount of their collections might at any time be inquired into.

Many Reforms Eliminated.

The revision of the administrative features eliminates many of the reforms proposed in the Underwood bill as it passed the House The Senate committee proposes an amendment, however, providing for a joint committee to investigate the revenue administration laws with the view to "simplifying, harmonizing revising and codifying them."

This committee would consist of three senators to be appointed by the vice president and four members of the ways and means committee to be appointed by the speaker and their recommendations would be required to be reported not later than Feb. 1, 1914. An appropriation of $15,000 for the investigation is recommended.

The specified articles and rates to which the authority of the president to make retaliatory increases in duties would extend, is as follows:

Fish, all kinds, 1 cent per pound; coffee 3 cents per pound, tea, 10 cents per pound.

On the following articles, one and one-fourth times the rates specified in the bill:

Earthenware, stone and chinaware, expressed oils, lemons, cheese, wines of all kinds, malt liquors, knitted goods, silk dresses and silk goods leather gloves, laces and embroideries, of whatever material composed and articles made wholly or in part of the same; toys, jewelry and precious semi-precious and imitation precious stones, suitable for use in the manufacture of jewelry.

"MAN HIGHER UP" IN ROOMING HOUSE NABBED

Alleged Robbery of Some of the Guests Results in Arrests by Police

Through some clever work on the part of Night Officer Somerville, there is now every indication that a "higher up" will soon have to answer for some of his operations in Wichita Falls, and in which some innocents have become victims.

Suspecting some time ago that all was not as it should be in a downtown rooming house, Policeman Somerville began some investigations on his own hook and elicited a little outside aid to carry on his investigations.

As a result, when a "job" in the way of a high-handed robbery was pulled off not more than three days ago, Somerville not only had the "dope" on the guilty parties, but so managed his end of the business that he secured confessions from those who have been used as tools and implicating the man at the top.

The evidence he has in his possession and which was turned over to the district attorney this morning, it is said, will look mighty strong when laid before a jury.

The officers feel that Somerville's work has at least put a stop to the high-handed operations and with the information in their possession which today's case brought to light, they will be enabled to cope with any further attempts at such business in the same quarter.

PHONE SERVICE TO BE IMPROVED

DIVISION SUPERINTENDENT HENDERSON MAKES THAT PROMISE TODAY

HAVE HAD MUCH TROUBLE

Says That Many Circumstances Have Combined to Impair Service Recently

"The telephone service in Wichita Falls will be improved at once. We have had much to contend with in the past three months. I do not say this in extenuation of any poor service the people of this city may have had, but I say it in explanation of the impaired service. We have now completed the major portion of the work which has been hampering us and I can promise a betterment of the service at once."

The above statement was made today by J. F. Henderson, division superintendent of the Southwestern Telephone Company. Mr. Henderson had come to Wichita Falls to confer with Councilman Bradley, who was recently appointed a committeeman of the council to make complaint to Mr. Henderson about the local telephone service.

Mr. Bradley had been called out of town and Mr. Henderson was unable to see him but said he would make another trip to this city in the near future and that he hoped to be able to talk with the directors of the Chamber of Commerce and with councilmen at that time.

Has New Equipment.

Mr. Henderson said that new cables had been laid recently, new and additional equipment added in the central station, and that the work of installing these improvements had necessarily impaired the service.

"The thing we have to contend with is this," said Mr. Henderson, "the average number of calls daily from each telephone is ten. That gives each subscriber ten opportunities a day to 'feel' the poor service if the service be poor, yet he can never see past the telephone and understand the conditions under which we are striving to give good service. When a man goes into a restaurant and has to wait an hour for his order to be served, he can understand why the service is poor—he can see that every waiter is being rushed to the limit. If he has to wait three hours for a train, he takes it philosophically as he knows the bridge has been washed out.

"But when he has trouble getting 'central' he cannot see how busy she is and what adverse conditions she is contending with. Hence he has no patience with poor telephone service. Since March 1 we have put in 300 new phones, have taken out 120, have moved 448, and have changed 56, making a total of 932 changes. Since May 1 we have put in 105 and so far in June have put in 59 new phones. All of this means work and a temporarily affected service. But the service will be improved from now on."

CLOSE EARLY SATURDAY ON ACCOUNT NEW LAW

Five Stores Announce Decision—Girls Not Allowed to Work Over 54 Hours a Week

In order to obey the new state law which limits working hours for women employes, five of Wichita Falls' stores will begin Saturday night closing at 9 o'clock. To keep open later would force the women employes to work longer than fifty-four hours which the law forbids, which is effective July 1. The stores which have agreed to close at 9 o'clock are:

P. H. Pennington.
W. B. McClurkan & Company.
C. J. Barnard & Company.
McGratton-Milsaps Company.
Jones-Kennedy Company.

The stores usually keep their employes at work nine hours a day during the week, so that when Saturday arrives, forty-five hours of the fifty-four have already been taken up. The early closing on Saturday night will, by allowing the clerks some time off earlier in the day, enable the proprietors to keep within the law. This may result in some inconvenience to shoppers at first, but it is thought they will soon become accustomed to it.

The employes themselves have no choice in the matter and even if they are willing to work more than fifty-four hours a week, their employer violates the law if he permits them to do so. The law is not effective until July 1, but the stores mentioned above will put the new plan into effect Saturday.

STAMPFLI FOUNTAIN OPENS; LITTLE FOLKS ARE GUESTS.

Several hundred boys and girls were guests of Vic Stampfli at the Cream Bakery yesterday and each enjoyed a dish of ice cream or a drink from the soda fountain, as his or her fancy dictated. The occasion was the formal opening of the fountain for the little folks, and that they enjoyed the occasion was evidenced by the happy smiling faces that gathered around the soda fountain.

A little later Mr Stampfli expects to have an opening for the men and women of the city.

PRESIDENT'S NOMINATION OF NICHOLSON WITHDRAWN

Washington, June 25.—President Wilson will withdraw his nomination of Meredith Nicholson, the Indiana novelist, to be Minister to Portugal. When objections were raised to the nomination on the ground that Nicholson was not a "good democrat" the novelist urged the president to withdraw his name if it embarrassed him politically, but the president declined to do so. Mr. Nicholson has insisted on the ground that he cannot take his family abroad.

IN THE SPHERE OF WOMANKIND

The Christmas Post.

Here it is, the gladest day in all the glad old year,
Full of tender memories, of joy and peace and cheer—
(Gee, Maria—please shut up about that grocer's bill!)
How the Dickens can I write of kindness and good will
All the world is glad in white, and a genial glow
Of a fair and smiling sun gleams upon the snow.
(Heavens, but it's sizzling hot! What a job have I, Writing Christmas poems in the middle of July!)

Kindly gifts from kindly folks—ah, the gift of friends—
Best, indeed, of all the gifts that the Yuletide sends—(Binks is on the telephone? Say I'm out! Gee whizz!
What a bally idiot that old duffer is!)
Voices of the children dear sounding everywhere,
Spreading hints of happiness on the frostly air
(Jimmie, if you speak again I'll give you such a whop
That you'll not forget it till the stars in heaven drops!)

All the good things of the earth on the table spread,
Wrought by loving hands and placed 'mid the berries red—(Susan, get the soda-mints. I've an awful pain,
And I beg you do not try your pies on me again!)
Peace on earth, good will to all. Mistletoe and chime—
Oh, this glad and glorious Merry Christmas time!
(There, by ginger! that is done. Got it off my chest,
And I'll make a sneak somewhere for a needed rest!)

RAILROADS MUST SHOW BOOKS TO COMMISSION

Washington, June 25—Nothing short of actual book accounts of railroads receipts and expenditures in intrastate business will be accepted by the Supreme Court of the United States as a basis of annulling State rates as confiscatory, according to the written opinion of Justice Hughes in the Arkansas rate cases, completed today

Justice Hughes announced the mere decision of the court that the two-cent passenger rates in the State were not confiscatory on the court's last decision day, June 16 and has been engaged in writing the opinion in the cases since that day

He pointed out the opinion that the railroads in attacking the rates failed to sustain their case because of too general methods employed in separating intrastate operations from interstate The value of the railroad property he said, for reasons set forth in the Minnesota cases was improperly divided between intrastate and interstate business on a gross revenue basis

He also criticised the lower courts conclusion that intrastate freight traffic cost 210 per cent more on the Iron Mountain road and 250 per cent more on the St Louis Southwestern than interstate traffic and the intrastate passenger service on the Iron Mountain cost 10 per cent more than the intrastate

MEXICO FINDS IT HARD TO BORROW ANY MONEY

French Bankers Offer to Loan Fifty Millions, But Under Impossible Conditions

San Antonio Texas June 25—Under practically prohibitive conditions French bankers have agreed to loan Huerta $50 000 000 according to Juan Sanchez Azcona, the late President Francisco Madero's private secretary who reached San Antonio today on his return from France

The making of the loan said Azcona is contingent upon two onerous conditions First Huerta must make peace within six months If he does so he will receive half of the promised sum, or $25 000 000 Second Huerta is not to attempt to borrow money from any other Nation If both conditions are fulfilled according to the contract detailed by Azcona Huerta will receive the second half of the loan three months after he has received the first half

Since Huerta has been deserted by Mondragon and de la Barra and is surrounded with intrigues and disaffections declared Azcona it is hardly within human possibility that he can make peace within six months Consequently there is little likelihood that he will receive any part of the loan from the French bankers

Azcona displayed a telegram saying that Huerta had purchased of a well known New York firm 6 000 carbines of 30-30 caliber and 5 000 000 rounds of ammunition to be shipped to the Mexican Federal troops via Vera Cruz

'Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap is as true today as it ever was The father who thinks he can sow all manner of evil in other peoples fields and not reap it in his own family is sadly mistaken Our sowing generally comes back with interest It is right that it should —Abilene Reporter

The Wichita Falls country is now enjoying some prosperity, not the least of which is a wheat crop—the best without a question of doubt since that of 1891, and which is threshing out all the way from 16 to 44½ bushels per acre In making this statement, the Times has taken precaution to give the lowest yield per acre so far made by any single crop, as well as the highest for a given number of acres, the highest being that of 12 acres on a farm that had 1,000 acres planted to wheat which produced 44½ bushels per acre The average for the entire 1000 acre crop being fixed at 20 bushels per acre This goes to prove that when farming is done right, and there is sufficient rainfall, there is no soil anywhere that will excel in crop producing than the farm lands of Wichita and adjoining counties

Daily papers are to be given special attention by postoffice officials after first-class mail is handled In other words Uncle Sam wants people who subscribe for daily papers to get them before they are a day old —Ardmore Ardmoite

Good news, if true There is certainly abundance of room for improvement Just recently a subscriber to the Times who resides in Oklahoma City, complained bitterly he was not receiving his paper His address appeared on our mailing galleys and particular pains were taken to see that the paper was wrapped securely, labeled and mailed Yet he did not receive his paper Finally he demanded a refund of the subscription price and in the same mail that brought this letter brought a card from the efficient (?) postmaster at Oklahoma City stating that the paper addressed to the complaining subscriber was undelivered and uncalled for We simply enclosed the post card in a letter to the complaining subscriber and made a note to the effect that we were supplying him with material with which he could build a slow fire under the efficient (?) postmaster and by the time he begins to smell the smoke he might conclude that it was a part of his duty to deliver second-class mail when called for We have heard of no further complaints from that subscriber and suppose he is getting his paper

BE CALM, BILL

Concluding some remarks and animadversions concerning some oil companies and oil production—including gas—in Texas the Wichita Falls correspondent of the National Petroleum News (Cleveland Ohio) says

* * * Therefore for the last time I want to state most emphatically that this typewriter is mine and I will tickle the keys and build the sentences that I choose and I don't care a tinker's tin what any man says My name is Bill Long and I live at 1104 Burnett street Wichita Falls Texas

For goodness sake Bill what do you think the oil business is—a rink with a hat in it? For one State Press isn't going to wake you up in the middle of the night at 1104 Burnett street to discuss this subject with you but at this distance S I doesn't mind suggesting that when he comes to your town next year to attend the next meeting of the Texas Press Association he will take the matter up with you and see if something can be found that will cool you off inside You carry on as if you were full of condensed rapsicum —Dallas News

McADOO'S PROMISE OF RELIEF

(Houston Post)

Secretary McAdoo's announcement that $500,000,000 in emergency currency would be forthcoming if the banks needed it must have come as a surprise to the bankers and a very agreeable one provided the secretary is authorized to do so Just how this currency can be issued and distributed is a matter of detail to be worked out by the department but assuming that the secretary can make good no doubt the bankers will feel greatly relieved

The approach of the crop-moving season with the apparent certainty of a tight money market caused by universal liquidation and monetary stagnation, has not been contemplated with much confidence or serenity by the bankers For some weeks past there has been a heavy contraction of credit, with its attending hardships for business and industry No other course of action seemed open to the bankers confronted as they were by their obligations to their depositors and their responsibilities to the public and producers

It is quite possible as the reports from New York indicate that the secretary's announcement will have the effect of giving immediate relief through the release of time money and other private hoards which have sought seclusion since the commencement of the stringency In the measure that this money comes into active use again will the necessity for emergency currency be diminished

Of course, there is no lack of actual circulating medium now, but there is such a lack of confidence, due to well known causes that the money in the country refuses to perform its function in a normal way When it is considered how a vast structure of credit is resting upon the money supply it is not surprising that scarcity socalled, should manifest itself as the first appearance of danger This is the logical consequence of ordinary prudence

Emergency currency issued by the government will be more satisfactory in many ways than the clearing house certificate, although the device, illegitimate though it was served a very useful purpose in a great crisis Supposedly, banks utilizing this emergency currency will be required to deposit interest therefor in which event it will be a safe innovation since the interest or tax would insure its prompt retirement with the disappearance of the emergency

This very plan is one of the vital features of the currency reform measure which it is understood the president will endeavor to induce congress to pass during the present session of congress If it can be done without specific legislation the wonder is that resort to such an issue has not been made before, since the small sums of public money deposited in the banks during times of stringency have never given the public ample relief

No one will complain if the secretary of the treasury finds he can stretch a statute sufficiently to enable him to relieve a crisis and save the people the multiplied millions they lose when a money famine overtakes the country Of course Wall street will have to be watched Speculation may take a dangerous course if the gamblers feel that the secretary of the treasury will come to the relief of the situation when needed He has made it plain that his proposal has nothing to do with Wall Street but is designed to enable the banks to do their part in moving the crops so that the producers may not be the innocent victims of a money famine

THE LADIES' AID

We are building a handsome church in our boosting city town,
The very latest design from foundation
stone to the dome crown
The contract is thirty thousand, the finishing touches more,
There will be stained glass windows
and a brass mounted door;
We agree to pay twenty five thousand down—every member do his best
And the Ladies' Aid God bless 'em they promise to pay the rest.

Of course we will put an organ in the church, finest in the land
With a hundred glittering pipes and the melody it will be grand,
And when we sit in our rich cushioned pews to hear the organist play,
We'll imagine we are in Heavenly realms unnumbered miles away
The organ will cost three thousand guaranteed for the hardest test
We will pay two thousand down the Ladies' Aid will pay the rest.

The ladies will give chicken pie dinners, sociables cantatas pink teas
Will bake a thousand Angel cakes a ton of ice cream they will freeze
They will beg save toil and perspire twelve months or even more
Then start all over again to buy a plush carpet for the church floor, Brothers you are required to put your hand in the pocket of your vest
When the Ladies Aid get busy and say that they will pay the rest.

You may frown and hesitate then you can hatch up any old excuse
But, in end you will shell out the cash
so Brothers, what's the use
For the church is going to be built largely by the Ladies Aid
As a free-will offering it will appear but the men will have paid
And I sometimes think when we arrive in the Regions of the Blest
The Good Lord will ask the Ladies
Aid to go and take a rest

THE CANAL AND THE FLEET

(From the New York Sun)

The most welcome information that Colonel George W Goethals has to communicate about the Panama Canal on his present visit to the States is not that the battleship fleet might be got through the waterway in October in an emergency but that the slides so often reported will not seriously interfere with the progress of or prevent the official opening This assurance is worth a hundred speculations about the passage of battleships and for two reasons One is that the croakers have been hinting at the failure of the canal and the other is that only war with an Asiatic Power would require the shift of the fleet to the Pacific and there will be no war

People who are nervous about the completion of the canal for war purposes have very short memories In 1898 the battleship Oregon whose best speed was only 17 knots steamed from San Francisco to Jupiter Inlet Florida in five days more than two months She sailed on March 19 and sighted Florida on May 24 It doesn't seem to occur to the timid ones that if there were a war cloud no larger than a man's hand on the horizon rim a wise government would not wait until the canal filled with water on October 1 but would start the fleet down the coast of South America to turn the Horn and head for San Francisco or Hawaii

The voyage could be made in two months and long before October the Atlantic fleet would be on the Pacific coast ready for any emergency But the Navy Department is contemplating no such strategic move The issue raised by the California alien land law is not pregnant with war the jingoes in Tokyo and San Francisco to the contrary notwithstanding

MEDAL FOR WANAMAKER

(From the New York Sun)

John Wanamaker was yesterday presented with a silver medal for fifty years of original and progressive retailing by the Dry Goods Economist The presentation took place in Mr Wanamakers private offices It is the second award made by this magazine for distinguished achievement in the dry goods field the first having gone to Marshall Field & Co five years ago

In tendering it A C Pierson manager of the paper, which has established itself as an authority in this field said that Mr Wanamaker was entitled to a place on the honor roll for the originality foresight and practicability of his mercantile operations He spoke of the Wanamaker modern and progressive spirit and the fine training for employes the stores offered

'Mr Wanamaker has infused his spirit in to the active operations of his business as has perhaps no other man," said Mr Pierson. "There is not a counter in the store or an advertisement in the paper that is not permeated with your ideas and individuality, sir"

An editorial in the Economist says 'In the field of American retailing there is no single individual who has exerted so broad an influence upon the entire trade as John Wanamaker, and in consideration of the health comfort and education afforded employes his establishments take rank among the leaders" question by asking another. There were several good-humored clashes between himself and Mr. Maury during the examination, much to the edification of the listeners. At the conclusion they shook hands over the stenographer's table.

On the face of the medal is the figure of a woman with a spindle, representing the dry goods trade, and that of a man typifying comerce in general.

Security's Stock

Mr. Marshall is a nephew of S. G. Bayne, president of the Seaboard National Bank. He worked in a bank at Salina, Kan., in which his uncle is interested, before coming to Texas in 1899 to work for the refinery then under construction and which was afterward known as the Security refinery and is now owned by the Magnolia. It was shown by the stock ledger that the Security stock was originally issued as follows: One share each to Marshall and L. W. Weller and 14,988 to S. G. Bayne. On Aug. 13, 1903, the Bayne shares were reissued to the London-American Commercial Trading and Investment Company, Limited, of London. It was shown from the records that Bayne had built the refinery and sold it to the Security company when formed for $4,500,000, receiving as part payment $2,500,000 of bonds and that these bonds were reissued Aug. 10, 1903, to the London company.

Witness testified that in 1903 a counselor named Jecks from England came here and went over the plant, for what purpose he did not know.

Mr. Maury called attention to the fact, as he claimed, that pages 26 to 31 of the Security company's minute book had been torn out.

Mr. Marshall objected to this statement, saying the pages were missing but had not been torn out. An examination of the book, he said, would show that these pages had never ben in the book.

Mr. Maury also emphasized the fact that the meeting from January, 1905, to February, 1911, showed the transaction of no business save the election of officers and he wanted to know why this was. Mr. Marshall said the minutes showed for themselves. He declared that no meetings had been held other than these recorded.

Mr. Marshall has been asked to produce the bank accounts showing the cost of the Security plant and other information.

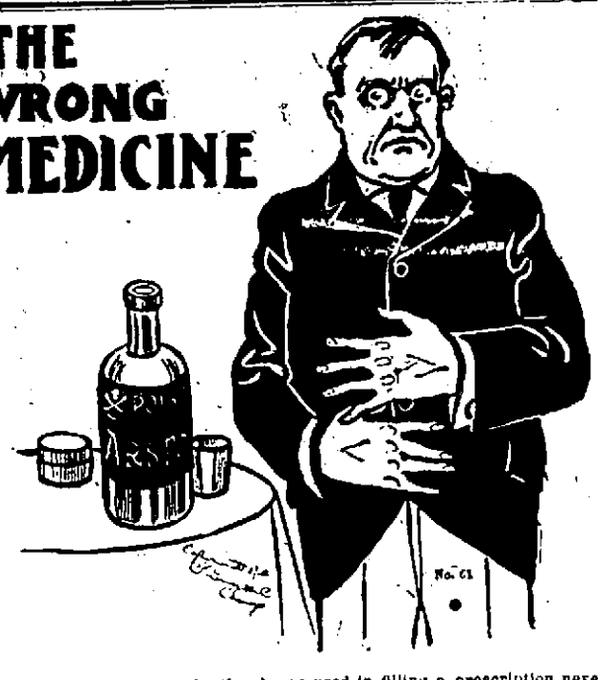
THE WRONG MEDICINE



The mistake in bottles or in the drugs used in filling a prescription never happens with us. In our prescription department every prescription we fill is checked and re-checked so there is no possibility of a mistake.

We do not leave out one drug or substitute another, for we give your doctor credit for knowing what ought to go into a prescription better than we do. Our system is too well perfected to permit of any bungling accuracy. Positive accuracy and perfect purity, that only properly describes our prescription department.

Errors Behind Contribute To Downfall—Only Five Hits Off Hailslip's Delivery

Special to The Times.

Denison, Texas, June 25.—Denison made nine runs yesterday, which was several times enough to win. Wichita Falls, with Jones in the box offered little resistance, the chief yielding fourteen hits. Six errors behind him contributed to the wretchedness of Wichita Falls' exhibition. Workman made his first error of the season in left field, and his perfect scoring record is now fractured.

Jones seemed to have little that the Blue Sox could not fathom and it was a case of everybody's doing it, when the hitting started.

Hailslip yielded only five hits and both of Wichita Falls scores came on bobbles in the infield, although for the most part his support was good. The score:

LESS THAN $10,000 LIFE INSURANCE PAID HERE

Less than $10,000 was paid to life insurance policy beneficiaries in Wichita Falls by old-line companies during the year 1912, according to figures furnished by the Life Insurance Press of New York. This is considered an unusual showing for a town this size and would indicate either that Wichitans do not die very regularly or that they do not carry much insurance when they do. In the list of towns in which over $10,000 was paid to beneficiaries are many towns smaller than Wichita Falls.

The figures for the larger cities of the State follow:

Dallas	$406,750
San Antonio	387,750
Houston	308,750
El Paso	205,500
Galveston	174,500
Austin	169,250
Fort Worth	134,000
Waco	105,750

The same publication gives figures based on the physical descriptions of its policy holders, showing that the average man in the United States and Canada is five feet, eight and a half inches tall and weighs 157 pounds; the average woman is five feet four and a quarter inches tall and weighs 136 pounds.

"According to the compilations," said the Press, "the human race on the North American continent is not increasing in weigh nor changing in stature materially."

WHAT DOES THE FIRE WHISTLE MEAN WHAT IT BLOWS?

When the "siren" whistle at the round house blows a fire alarm, it is supposed to blow according to a code of signals that would give the listener the approximate location of the fire It is supposed to do that, but if anybody ever distinguished the signals, he kept it very secret. This matter came up at council meeting and Alderman John Young contended that the signals were correctly given, according to the code.

Monday night there was a fire and Alderman Bradley cocked his ear in an effort to find out whether it was "one long and two shorts" or something else He couldn't tell and when Alderman Young appeared at the city hall, he sprang it on him.

"I couldn't tell anything about that whistle tonight," he said.

"Of course you couldn't," said Alderman Young, "the fire was outside the city limits" Investigation showed that the fire was really about ten feet from the corporation line. Alderman Bradley is still listening and Alderman Young is standing firm

PRETTY SOFT FOR EXPRESS AGENT

R. D. HORTON HAS OFFICE, DESK, SAFE AND SALARY, BUT NO WORK

REPRESENTS THE EMPIRE

Company Whose Affairs Are Still In Litigation Keeps Him Here With Nothing To Do

The man who is absolutely satisfied with his job has been found. He is R. D Horton of this city. He has his office in the rear of the Joline building.

Mr. Horton is local agent for the Empire Express Company, and he is getting paid for it.

The only work attached to Horton's job is the making out of his monthly report, and his monthly report reads like this: "Nothing doing all month—mail pay check to me at Joline building."

Horton has a brand new fireproof, burglar-proof safe in his office, with wind shield, fender and self starting attachment. He doesn't even have to open that safe, and hasn't opened it since he opened his office on June 2.

Position, But No Work.

Horton is not a lazy man, nor disloyal to his employers. If the boss had any business for him to look after he would look after it carefully and prayerfully. And he wouldn't knock down a cent, either But Horton's boss hasn't any business. They hope to have some day—but not yet.

The Empire Express Company was born in Dallas. It came near dying there. They wanted to do business over the Katy. The Katy had what they thought was a hog-tight exclusive contract with the American Express Company and paid no attention to the pleadings of the Empire Company. The Empire went into court with their troubles and spent a lot of money. The Katy was finally ordered by the court to abrogate that exclusive contract with the American, or anybody else, and to give the Empire a look-in.

Affairs Not Settled.

This provided that the Empire company with certain requirements One of these requirements is that they got a chance to do any business with the Katy at all in Texas, that they would do at least $10,000 worth per month. This $10,000 has been put up by the Empire, but the Katy still has until the 29th of June to say what they are going to do about it. The Katy has in the meantime appealed to the highest court that could be located in Austin, and asked for permission to appeal from the decision of some other court. So the affair is not yet entirely settled.

But in the meantime R. D. Horton is local agent, and he is drawing his salary, and he is whooping her up for the boss, but he isn't making any trains, nor delivering any packages

And there are about 500 other men doing as much (or as little) for the Empire Express Company in Texas today. They are maintaining their offices so that they can do business legally and quickly if ever they get a chance

Opinion of the United States Supreme Court

Rendered on Bank Overdrafts

"A usage to allow customers to overdraw and have their checks and notes charged up without present funds in the bank, stripped of all technical disguise, the usage and practice, thus attempted to be sanctioned, is a usage and practice to misapply the funds of the bank; and to connive at the withdrawal of same, without any security, in favor of certain privileged persons. Such a usage and practice is surely a manifest departure from the duty, both of the directors and cashier, as can not receive any countenance in a court of justice. It could not be supported by any vote of the directors, however formal; and therefore, whenever done by the cashier, is at his own peril and upon the responsibility of himself and his sureties. It is anything but 'well and truly executing his duties as cashier.'"

The above is an exact copy of decision of the United States Supreme Court.

We ask our customers and friends to be careful and not draw checks that will create overdrafts.

44 BUSHELS OF WHEAT PER ACRE

FARM NEAR CITY THRESHES THAT MUCH FROM 12 ACRE STRIP

1000 ACRES HARVESTED

Good Yield Attributed by Mr Derden to Careful Preparation and Early Sowing

Forty four and a half bushels to the acre is the wheat yield on what is known as the old Lysight farm located on the northeast side of Lake Wichita, according to Mr Derden of the Derden Land Company, who states that this was the average on twelve measured acres of this farm where threshing is now in progress

On this farm, there are 1000 acres planted to wheat which is now being harvested and Mr Derden believes that the average for the thousand acres will be better than twenty bushels per acre This would mean at least 20,000 bushels of wheat from the one crop

This farm is not irrigated and Mr Derden attributes the splendid yield on the twelve measured acres to thorough plowing cross-plowing, harrowing and early sewing The entire thousand acres was all sown to wheat before November 1 and all the land had been broken and prepared to receive the seed by the middle of September Mr Derden owns or controls thousands of acres of agricultural lands in Wichita, Clay and Archer counties and will not rent to tenants who will not prepare the land thorough and sow early

His experience with farming in this county has convinced him that such methods are essential to the best results The fact that it will require a train of more than twenty box cars to move the wheat crop produced on this one farm of 1000 acres will probably convince most people that Mr Derden knows how wheat should be handled

Warmuth of Rural Route No 3, accompanied by three small children were in the buggy when the horse took fright as they drove down the hill on that street, and started to run The buggy was overturned near the Reynolds rooming house, at 806 Ninth The woman and thee children were all thrown into the flower bed in front of the boarding house, yet neither was injured except Mrs. Warmuth, who sustained a bad cut on the head Physicians were called, and Mrs. Warmuth was soon able to return home.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework.

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.

CATO SELLS MAKES PLAIN QUARANTINE RULES.

Cleburne, Texas, June 25—Judge Cato Sells, commissioner of Indian affairs, today gave out the following statement here

Some of the newspaper reports of my recent statement concerning the purchase of cattle for the Crow Indian reservation are not plain in their reference to quarantine restrictions which it should be understood must under the law, be strictly regarded The change now made is in this

"That hereafter, breeding, rather than location, except as affected by quarantine lines, will be the determining factor and because of this construction, for the first time in many years Northwestern Texas and New Mexico cattle will be acceptable in competition with cattle from other sections and under like specifications"

Greenville, Texas, June 25—Judge William Pierson has authorized Receiver S B. Brooks to pay interest due in July for the Magnolia and Corsicana Petroleum Oil companies on outstanding bonds, the amount of interest being $258,166

The Magnolia was the principal party to the application as it asked the right to pay interest on $10,000,000 outstanding bonds, less $3,000,000 unsold The interest amounts to $232,500

The Corsicana company owes interest on one $500,000 note and on four $100,000 notes, the interest amounting to $23,866.

The obligations in each case are held by the Columbia Knickerbocker Trust Company of New York for itself and others
